The Long Road

From the hill, Pip saw two tired travelers make their way toward Bethlehem. Mary and Joseph traveled beneath the night sky, and the road seemed long. The town was crowded. There was no room for them in the inn, so they found a quiet place where animals rested. Straw crunched softly under their feet. Pip wanted to hurry down and help, but the shepherd held him close. “We will watch,” and whispered. Pip listened to the stillness and wondered what would happen next.

“And she brought forth her firstborn son, and wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a manger; because there was no room for them in the inn.”

— Luke 2:7 (KJV)
